Good evening, Art.

I meant to write to Shirley as well, but I could not find her e-mail in my history. Still, please share this message with her as well.

It's been more than a year since I was formally awarded the Steven Sotloff memorial endowment in your name. I want to reiterate my thanks and assure you that I am committed to living out Steven's legacy: the brave and spirited pursuit of the truth. I've recently settled in Charleston, where I will be starting my career as a staff writer at the alternative-weekly Charleston City Paper.

I don't know what it was you saw in my application, but your support made it possible for me to get through a strenuous semester. The endowment ensured my timely graduation in May and made it possible for me to be where I am today. I can't thank you enough.

Your son continues to be an inspiration to me and to many others. I know I'm leaving behind an array of strong candidates for you to choose from next. I hope to hear back from you soon.

Adam.
